

Sensivision Health Technologies. successful completed clinical trial involving 100 Newborns, using our groundbreaking device – the first of its kind worldwide – designed to treat and monitor. November 2023

Today marks a significant milestone for Sensivision Health Technologies. We are thrilled to announce the successful completion of a clinical trial involving 100 Newborns, using our groundbreaking device – the first of its kind worldwide – designed to treat and monitor #HypoxicIschemicEncephalopathy in #newborns .

This achievement is the result of a remarkable journey, driven by the unwavering dedication and motivation of our clinical teams across various hospital sites. Their relentless efforts have been instrumental in helping us reach this momentous milestone.

The #REVIVE device now stands among the elite few globally, having undergone rigorous testing and delivering unparalleled treatment for #hie , equipped with pioneering features. We are profoundly grateful for the support we have received throughout this endeavour.