

Pramod Priya Ranjan, Co-founder and director, Care Form Labs Private Limited (Onpery®) has been featured under 'special mentions' of Forbes India 30 Under 30 2024

An industrial and system design graduate from IIT-Delhi, with experience in innovation, strategy, venture building and social impact projects, Ranjan, along with Nachiket Kiran Thakur, co-founded Onpery®, a wellness brand, offering proprietary reusable menstrual products, including menstrual cups, reusable sanitary pads, and a proprietary wellness literacy novel series on all types of discharges, children's safety and empathy management.

All the achievers across this category missed the list by a whisker but their achievements are hard to ignore.

Congratulations to their team and best wishes for all their endeavours!
